Lost phone

Anne-Marie couldn't find her phone.

She was riding on the school bus, playing a game.

Suddenly she was at the school and had to get off.

Her bag fell down to the floor and she had to pick up everything very quickly.

And now the phone was gone.

Maybe it fell under one of the seats on the bus and she didn't see it.

In the classroom she was almost crying.

Behind her, a voice said: 'Hi girl! I think you dropped something!'

Her friend Carol was holding up the phone with a big smile on her face.
